7. Criteria for the evaluation of bids, information on point or percentage weights and a description of how the points are awarded for meeting a given bid evaluation criterion

1. Offers will be evaluated according to the following criteria:

offer net price - 100 points (100%);

The method of calculating the criterion value in the range of the offer price:

Points for the examined offer = (lowest net price for the subject of the Order / net price of the examined offer) x 100.

1% = 1 point.

The maximum number of points to be obtained in this criterion is 100

2. The highest total number of points obtained (max. 100 points = 100%) will decide on the selection of the best offer. Calculations will be made to two decimal places (rounded from "5" up). Other offers receive further deposits.

3. If it is not possible to select the most advantageous offer due to the fact that two or more offers present the same balance of price and other criteria for the evaluation of offers, the Ordering Party will choose the offer with the lowest price from among those offers, and if they have been submitted with the same price, The Ordering Party shall summon the Contractors who submitted these offers to submit, within the time limit specified by the Ordering Party, documents indicating environmental and climate parameters, in order to select an offer more favorable in terms of environmental impact (in particular, lower energy consumption, water consumption, use of recycled materials).

8. Deadline for submission of bids

1. The offer should be submitted by: 29th April 2022.
2. The contractor should be bound by the submitted offer for a period of at least 30 days. The offer validity period begins with the submission deadline.

9. Price calculation and offer preparation

1. Price calculation method:

The Contractor in the offer should offer a complete price, including the total cost of the subject of the contract, including all price-forming elements resulting from the implementation of the subject of the contract.

2. The Ordering Party requires the Contractor to express the price of the offer in Polish zlotys (PLN) or in euros (EUR).

3. In the case of Contractors who express the price of a bid in a currency other than PLN, for the purpose of selecting the bid, the Ordering Party may convert the given amounts of a given currency at the average exchange rate announced by the National Bank of Poland on the day of opening the bids. In the absence of publication of the exchange rate by the National Bank of Poland on the day referred to above, the Ordering Party shall apply the last exchange rate announced by the National Bank of Poland before that day. The exchange rate risk is borne by the Ordering Party.

4. The offer price in the case of Contractors with their registered office or place of residence in the territory of the Republic of Poland is the net price, referring to all costs related to the performance of the contract, fees, taxes (including tax on goods and services - VAT) and all other costs of any kind nature that may arise in connection with the implementation of the subject of the contract. The amount of VAT (in the amount applicable on the day of submitting offers) and the net price should be clearly separated.

5. The offer price for Contractors who do not have registered office or place of residence on the territory of the Republic of Poland is the net price, expressed in PLN or EUR (excluding the tax on goods and services in force in Poland), covering all costs related to the performance of the contract, all fees, taxes (excluding tax on goods and services) and all other costs of any nature that may arise in connection with the implementation of the subject of the contract. The price must be expressed to two decimal places.
6. A proposal form is attached as Annex 2 to this request for proposals. The Ordering Party requires the submission of an offer for the implementation of the Order using the template form. The offer form should contain the following attachments:
excerpt from the Contractor's KRS / Extract from the Contractor's CEIDG / other registration document appropriate for the Contractor indicating persons authorized to represent the Contractor; power of attorney if the offer is submitted by a proxy; description of submitted bids.
7. The Ordering Party shall not summon to submit personal evidence, if it is possible to access this information by means of complementary and publicly available database, in particular public register;
